Hosted by the University of Nebraska – Lincoln, the 2018 Social Psychology and Law Preconference will include two symposia focused on the following issues of law:

- Jury Decision-Making
- Attribution Models of Legal Judgment
- Alternative Dispute Resolution
- Attorney Behavior

Featured speakers include:

- Connie Beck
- Mandeep Dhami
- Narina Nuñez
- Valerie Reyna
- Jennifer Robbenolt
- Kimberly Schweitzer
- Ashley Votruba

The Preconference will also include:

- Poster sessions with the latest research in Social Psychology and Law
- 10-minute datablitz presentations from promising scholars
- Breakfast and lunch included with Preconference registration

Preconference registration is currently open. Poster and Datablitz talks accepted on a rolling basis.

Register at: http://meeting.spsp.org/preconferences/law#Registration

Questions? Please contact us at socialpsychandlaw@gmail.com

For more information, visit: http://meeting.spsp.org/preconferences/law

Sponsored by the University of Nebraska – Lincoln