Call for Applications for the AP-LS Teaching, Training and Careers Committee

The TTC is currently seeking applicants for membership for a three-year term from August 2018 to August 2021.

The goal of the APLS TTC is to help further the careers of junior- and senior-level professionals in the field of psychology and law. Our focus is broad, targeting professionals at teaching institutions to those at research intensive universities and private companies to clinicians and lawyers practice. We have developed several helpful guides for prospective and current students, and also promote the teaching of psychology and law by sponsoring two annual awards, and by collecting and disseminating sample syllabi and other teaching materials. The current committee is comprised of six APLS members. For more information, please contact the committee chairperson Melinda Wolbransky (melinda.wolbransky@gmail.com).

As we have several APLS members wanting to serve on this committee we hold a formal application process. The TTC will review applications in May and will make recommendations for membership to the APLS Executive Council who will make decisions on final membership appointments.

To apply, submit a statement of intent (500 words max) and your CV to the committee chairperson Melinda Wolbransky (melinda.wolbransky@gmail.com) by May 15, 2018. In your statement of intent please include your primary area of work (teaching – master’s only, teaching – PhD/PsyD, mentoring/training – undergrad/graduate, mentoring/training – post-graduate/professional, or other), your background (law, clinical, experimental, or other), and if you are an early career professional (7 years or less post-graduation of your highest degree).

We look forward to receiving your applications.

Sincerely,

The APLS TTC
