Embracing Leadership: Developing Skills for Your Career Evolution

The American Psychology-Law Society is starting a leadership development program, and we encourage any and all members to apply for this exciting opportunity! Embracing Leadership is designed to provide our members with practical training in leadership and with leadership opportunities within AP-LS. The goals of the program are:

1) Provide training for interested members in a variety of leadership skills that could benefit their careers broadly
2) Cultivate interest in leadership within the Division
3) Provide leadership opportunities within the Division
4) Prepare our members to take on leadership challenges

Embracing Leadership will have four activities that will take place over the next year. These activities include:

1) Webinars on leadership topics that will be eligible for CE credit starting around January, 2020
2) A workshop on leadership on the Wednesday prior to the 2019 AP-LS conference
3) Connecting participants to a mentor already in leadership in the Division
4) Providing opportunities for leadership within the Division by completing an initiative with AP-LS leadership starting in March, 2020

Applicants are welcome from all career levels, including applicants who are graduate students, ECPs, mid-career, and beyond.

To apply, upload a brief CV and a statement of interest by clicking on the following link: AP-LEmbracingLeadershipApplication. The statement of interest (1000 words maximum) should provide a brief summary of where you are in your career, your goals for your own leadership development, what skills you would like to develop, what leadership roles you have had, and what (if any) leadership roles you would like to obtain in the future. The survey will ask you some basic demographic questions that we may use to evaluate the program.

Applications are due November 15, 2019.
